

At the anchoring inspection, when using conventional auger and strap anchors, they are required to be four feet long as noted on the head of the anchor. If a State of Delaware Licensed Professional Engineer's letter is submitted stating the auger can be shorter based on soil conditions. When using other means to anchor the home, the manufacturer's installation instructions must be supplied to this office prior to the inspection.