

CONSTRUCTION PLAN REQUIREMENTS

Construction Plans

Construction plans are to consist of two complete sets of plans showing the project in sufficient detail to ensure building code compliance.

Typical construction plans consist of:

- Foundation plans and details
- Floor plans
- Typical Cross Sections
- Elevation drawings
- Completed energy form (2009 REScheck) (As of November 11, 2014 a 2012 REScheck is required)
- Manual-J, Manual-D, and Manual-S if applicable

Plot Plans

A prepared survey or scaled drawing of the property with the proposed location of the new building, proposed addition, or improvement is preferred.

A plot plan will show:

- The overall dimensions of the property.
- Street or road frontage(s) and the name of the road(s).
- Location of any existing structures and proposed structures with dimensions.
- Location of septic or hook-up to public sewer.
- Location of the septic system and the distances from any structures.
- North direction.

Floodplain Requirements

If the property is located within the 100 year floodplain, an Elevation Certificate is required at the time of permit application.

Kent County Code Article XXIV requires:

1. Structures within the 100-year floodplain are to be elevated to 18 inches above the Base Flood Elevation (BFE) unless located in town limits. For structures in Coastal High Hazard areas, the lowest horizontal structural member is to be elevated 18 inches above Base Flood Elevation (BFE).
2. All mechanical and utilities located in the 100-year floodplain must be elevated 18 inches above Base Flood Elevation (BFE).

Kent County requires:

- A complete Elevation Certificate prepared by a Professional Surveyor or Engineer licensed in the State of Delaware.
- If the structure is to be elevated on pilings, plans prepared by an Engineer or Architect licensed in the State of Delaware.

Additional Kent County Floodplain Requirements

- All structures within the 100 year floodplain are to be elevated to 18 inches above the Base Flood Elevation (BFE) unless located within Town limits where Kent County does not enforce their floodplain requirements.
