

COLLECTING DELINQUENT HOA ASSESSMENTS IN JP COURT WITHOUT A LAWYER

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 2018

The DE Department of Justices' Common Interest Community Ombudsman, Advisory Council Education Committee, the Justice of the Peace Court, and Kent County Government officials – will present information on the Ombudsman Office, and the #1 requested topic: Collection of Delinquent Condo and HOA assessments. This program will focus on suing in JP Court on the personal debt created by the assessment, without using a lawyer.

Although the workshop is free, seating is limited. Register via email: DOJ.Ombudsman@state.de.us or by fax at (302) 577-6499 no later than June 18th.
