

Exhibit B

Variances requested:

- from maximum impervious surface coverage of 23% to enable the construction of an addition,
- from the requirement that an accessory structure be located 30 ft. behind the rear elevation of the principal structure and 15ft. from all rear and side lot lines
- from the requirement that the aggregate floor area within an accessory structure be no greater than 5% of the lot area to provide for a Home-Based Contractor application

