

Defensive Driving courses ready to go on Feb 12 & 14

How's your driving? You can protect yourself, the County, and earn a 3 point MVR credit by participating in an annual defensive driving class in February.

All employees are eligible to participate in the County-sponsored defensive driving training, but priority will be given to those employees who must maintain compliance with Kent County Levy Court Policy 4-6.

The costs associated with the required defensive driving course and recertification will be paid by the County for employees who regularly operate a County-owned vehicle. Other interested employees or retirees must pay the full costs of the course. Family members may also take the class.

Two Advanced classes (Refresher) will be held on Thursday, February 14, 2019 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Levy Court Chambers.

The Basic class will be held Tuesday, February 12, 2019 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in Room 220. If we do not get at least 15 people for any of the scheduled class times, it will be canceled and employees will have to make arrangements to take the class elsewhere.

Payroll coordinators have been sent a list of employees required to take either Basic or Advanced Defensive Driving this year. If interested in attending a course, please enroll with the Personnel Office on or before Wednesday, February 6, 2019. The fee for those employees not required to take these courses is $20.00 for Advanced (Refresher) and $25.00 for Basic. The fee is payable at the door.

If you plan to attend either of these classes, please arrive early and bring your driver's license. They ask that everyone be in their seats and ready to go at 8:45 a.m. Anyone arriving late will not be admitted.

Please contact the Personnel Office at 744-2310 if you have questions. The class instructor will not answer any questions concerning point credits or insurance discounts. Information concerning points should be directed to DMV at 302-744-2509. Questions about insurance discounts should be directed to your agent.
