Kent County Levy Court Swears-In First Female Deputy Sheriff

Dover, Del.—Monday, June 3, 2019 marked another historic moment for Kent County Levy Court when The Honorable Brenda Wooten swore-in the first female and first African American Deputy Sheriff, Kim Warfield. Deputy Warfield has an extensive career and background as a retired NYPD Detective. She also has a Doctoral Degree in Divinity and is an Apostolic Pastor.

Replacing Deputy Larry Warner who retired on May 31, 2019 after 18 years of service, Deputy Warfield will serve court ordered subpoenas, assist with foreclosures, monitions, and notice to lienholders. She will also assist with Sheriff Sales and perform many functions for the State of Delaware and U.S. Courts.
