Kent County Public Library Offers Many Options to Keep You Busy While Under Stay at Home Orders

Dover, Del. – On Monday, March 23, Delaware Public Libraries of which Kent County Public Library is included, launched hoopla! So, what is hoopla? Hoopla is a digital media service offered by Delaware Public Libraries that allows you to borrow movies, music, audiobooks, ebooks, comics and TV shows to enjoy on your computer, tablet, or phone – and even your TV! Download the hoopla app to your device, sign-in with your Delaware Library Card. Don't have a library card yet, sign-up online today. It's all FREE! https://dela.ent.sirsi.net/client/en_US/default/search/registration/\$N?pc=SYMWSDEFAULT

With no waiting, titles can be streamed immediately through your desktop browser or hoopla mobile app. You can download to phones or tablets for offline enjoyment later where Wi-Fi may be unavailable. Titles are automatically returned and removed from your device at the end of the lending period.

There's an abundance of titles to choose from, with more being added daily. It's like having your Delaware public library at your fingertips. Anytime. Anywhere.
